

Introducing RISE Champions

Name: Christina Santos

Location: Gainesville, GA

Title: HR Generalist

Why do I look forward to coming into work every day?

I look forward coming into work because everyday is different. Being able to assist people with such the smallest requests is an accomplishment.

Fun Fact:

I enjoy hiking, outdoor activities and spending time with my family and friends.

What does being a RISE Champion mean to you?

It means to encourage women to overcome challenges and strive for success. It serves as a motivational call reminding us to believe in ourself, work hard, and perseveres in the face of obstacles.

Introducing RISE Champions

Name: Jonsita “Boo” Lewis

Location: Gainesville

Title: Sr. Customer Service Representative

Why do I look forward to coming into work every day?

It is about the customer. Establishing a rapport that builds relationship and business. Also to be a positive example of influence to my peers.

Fun Fact: Pageant Winner
1986 Miss Teenager of Hall County

What does being a RISE Champion mean to you?

It means an opportunity to help women in the workforce identify their hidden and sometimes overlooked talents and value. Empowering and Encouraging them to RISE.

Introducing RISE Champions

Name: Manoela Chiacchio

Location: Gainesville

Title: Quality Supervisor

Why do I look forward to coming into work every day?

In a few years when I look back at this time, I would like to think I have impacted people in a positive way. I believe a positive influence in the people around you is one way to make the world a better place.

Fun Fact:

I am born and raised in Brazil and my first language is Portuguese.

What does being a RISE Champion mean to you?

It means that I can help inspire and encourage the women in this workforce, so that their impact on others will make Hydro a better place to work.